

[UPCON 2024 will also offer a platform for emerging PhD scholars engaged in cutting-edge research in Electrical, Electronics and Computer engineering. This opportunity is available to Ph. D. scholars from Institutes of International/National Importance such as IITs, IIITs, NITs, as well as other research institutes and universities in India and abroad.

The submitted Thesis will be shortlisted/ evaluated by the panel of experts. Selection will be based on the technical relevance of the Ph.D. research to the conference theme and the quality of the proposed working model. PhD scholars who have submitted their thesis or those who have recently been awarded their PhD (during 2023-2024) are encouraged to participate.

Interested candidates should submit a detailed synopsis along with the published research papers related to the thesis work to upcon2024@srmcem.ac.in by August 31, 2024. Please use the subject line "UPCON 2024 Ph. D. Colloquium Submission."

On the top of it you write:

- Submission for Best Ph.D. Thesis award
- Tracks Electrical / Computer / Electronics Engineering
- Your Name
- Supervisors' Name
- University / Institute awarding the Ph.D.
- Date of Submission
